

GLEN INNES LOCAL AECG

New South Wales
Aboriginal Education Consultative Group Inc.

Dear Parents, Cares and Community Members,

Glen Innes Aboriginal Education Consultative Group (AECG) is looking for parents, cares and community members to join the team.

The primary role of our AECG is to promote participation by First Nations people in the decision making process of education in our local schools. This is a wholly volunteer based organisation, our key focus is 'community first' the education rights of First Nations people being our driving force.

Partnership Agreement between the NSW Aboriginal Education Consultative Group Inc and the NSW Department of Education 2020-2030

The NSW Department of Education recognises the NSW AECG as the peak community advisory body to the department on Aboriginal education at all levels and in all stages of planning and decision making. The renewed partnership focuses on a strength-based approach. The department is committed to respectfully listening and learning from the NSW AECG, and its network of Regional and Local AECGs.

The NSW AECG was born from an education movement that advocates the right to access and participate in an education system. The Partnership Agreement outlines how we will achieve this and our shared responsibilities.

By Walking Together, Working Together, we look to a future, a future that builds a nation founded on tolerance, respect and understandings of the unique place of its First Nations People. A future laid by the foundation of an education system that celebrates and recognises that we are the oldest living culture of humanity.

The NSW Aboriginal Education Consultative Group Inc (NSW AECG) and the NSW Department of Education (the department) agree to use our best endeavours to ensure that every Aboriginal child and young person in NSW achieves their potential through education.

Please join us at our next meeting -
Monday June 7th, LALC Lang Street, Glen Innes
